Weekly Snapshot

LAST WEEK: West Florida snapped West Alabama's 16-game win streak with a five-set (23-25, 23-25, 25-15, 25-23, 16-14) thrilling win on their home court last Tuesday that handed the Tigers their first conference loss this season. The Argonauts battled back after dropping the first two sets, sweeping the final three. They were led by Patricia Gandolfo who tallied 21 kills for a .425 clip alongside a gigantic 13 blocks. The win improved the Argos to 6-2 in the GSC.

This week, West Florida volleyball earned a 3-0 (25-19, 25-11, 28-26) sweep of former conference opponent Montevallo on Tuesday evening to close out their regular season at home. Lindsay Homme was the biggest offensive threat for the Argos, and was named Player of the Game for her career-high 16 kills on a .535 hitting percentage.

As a team, the Argos hit .298 with five Argos over .300 fueled by Tricia Tirabassi's 42 assists. Alongside Homme, outside hitters Valissia Brathwaite tallied double-digit kills with 13, while Chelsea Wilhoite earned her 10th double-double of the season with 10 kills and 16 digs.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENTS: West Florida takes on Valdosta State first this weekend, a team they swept at home on October 9. The Lady Blazers have clinched the fourth seed in the East Division, and are on a four-game win streak. Their streak began with a first-ever defeat of division rival North Alabama on October 23. VSU took wins from Albany State and Fort Valley State last week, and are rounding out their regular season with West Florida and West Alabama.

The West Georgia Wolves went 0-3 last week, suffering losses to Armstrong Atlantic and conference opponents Alabama-Huntsville and North Alabama. West Florida swept the Wolves in their first meeting of the season on October 10th.

ARGOS AMONG THE RANKS: The Argos continue to hold down the No. 3 position in the latest NCAA South Region poll, just behind SSC programs Saint Leo and Tampa. West Florida looks to maintain a spot in the top eight in the South Region as they prepare for postseason competition.

The winners of the Sunshine State, Gulf South, and SIAC conferences each get automatic bids to the NCAA South Region tournament, and the final five spots are filled in accordingly with those teams listed in the region poll. A good position in the region poll can help those teams who falter in their respective conferences to have a shot at making the national tournament.

UWF News and Notes

FRESHMEN IMPACT: Several Argonaut freshmen have made an impact on this year's squad, including Tricia Tirabassi who has earned the starting role of setter. Tirabassi has run an offense this season that has posted a .216 hitting percentage, good for third among all GSC teams this season. She has tallied 912 assists, ranking fifth among setters in the league.

Amanda Spaay and Lindsay Homme have played instrumental roles for the Argos, Spaay as a defensive specialist and Homme as a middle hitter. Spaay has appeared in 98 sets, and has eight matches in double-digit digs.

Homme has made the difference in the Argos' last two matches, collecting 28 kills for an impressive .426 hitting percentage. She was Tuesday night's Player of the Game, the first freshmen to win the award this season, with 16 kills, a .536 clip, and four total blocks. In just two matches, she has improved an under .200 hitting percentage to a .251.

AWARD SWEEP: West Florida's Patricia Gandolfo is first athlete in 2009 to win both the Gulf South Conference East Division Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week awards. On the offensive side of the ledger, the senior was dominant, posting 21 kills in a pivotal 3-2 win over West Alabama.

She hit an outstanding .425 during the match with a season-high 21 kills on the offensive attack. If that performance wasn't enough, she completely dominated the net for UWF defensively as well. She had 13 total blocks, just one off the school record. That performance was also a career-high for the senior, who currently leads the team with 95 blocks on the season.

Gandolfo has tallied seven career weekly awards, these two marking her sixth and seventh. The seven awards are the most any volleyball player in UWF's program history has ever claimed. For the second week in a row, she serves as the Offensive Player of the Week, while the defensive nod is her second of the year, fourth overall.

GSC SNEAK PEAK: Regular season play for Gulf South teams closes this weekend, and four teams from each division have claimed their trip to the Gulf South Conference tournament. With the tournament on the horizon, the Argos secured their berth last week with their five-set win over West Alabama.

Also from the East are West Alabama, North Alabama, and Valdosta State with VSU the only sure seed at number four. The remaining pairings will be decided in league action this weekend.

From the West, Harding has clinched the division title, earning the right to host the tournament as the first seed. Tournament hosting switches back and forth between the East and West's top seeds each year. The only other sure seed is in the hands of Arkansas-Monticello who has checked in as number two. Henderson State and Arkansas Tech's positions will be decided this weekend, as well.
