UWF News & Notes

NUMBER ONE: The Lady Argos enter the postseason for the eighth straight year, this time ranked as the number one team in all of NCAA Division II. The Argos claim the top spot for the sixth straight week of voting.

POTENTIAL OPPONENTS: UWF will face Rollins in the South Region Championship on Friday. In their match-up earlier in the season the Tars quickly put the Argos in a 2-0 hole just six minutes into the match. It has been the only time this season the Argos have trailed in a match and also marks the only time this season that an opponent has score more than one goal against the Argonaut's defense. The Argos would quickly recover with three unanswered first half goals on their way to the 4-2 victory. The Last time the Argos travel to Carson Newman was in the 2005 Regionals where they dropped a 2-0 decision to Carson-Newman.

REWRITING HISTORY: This year's dominant squad has re-wrote the UWF record books with their overpowering offense. Thus far, nine records have fallen since the start of 2009 with more potentially to come. Dernelle Mascall has claimed the career record for points (146) and goals with 56. Shaneka Gordon broke the season assist record with 19 assists this season. Both Shakira Duncan and Gordon have eclipsed the season mark for points and goals, with Duncan leading the way in both categories. The team has also set the mark for goals scored in a season (112), points in a season (302). With their win over UNA in the Second Round, the Argos tied the program's longest winning streak at 20 games. The Argos have also set a new NCAA record with 66 home games without a loss (including NCAA postseason), a record dating back to 2003.

ARGOS IN THE POSTSEASON: The Argos reach the postseason for the ninth time and eighth straight under Head Coach Joe Bartlinski. All-time in the NCAA postseason the Argos have compiled a record of 7-8-1. Their deepest run at a National Championship came last season when the Lady Argos dropped the National Championship match to Seattle Pacific University 1-0 in sudden death double overtime. They will enter this postseason as the No. 1 team in the South Region and have tied the program's longest winning streak at 20 games.
